

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Delores Sannes has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, through her caring, sharing, and day-to-day giving, making South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

Whereas, Delores has held the position of Facilities Management Facility Worker at The University of South Dakota (USD) for more than 23 years, and on May 21, 2009, Delores is retiring; and,

Whereas, Delores has responded faithfully to her duties of maintaining a welcoming environment for students, staff, and faculty during her tenure with The University of South Dakota; and,

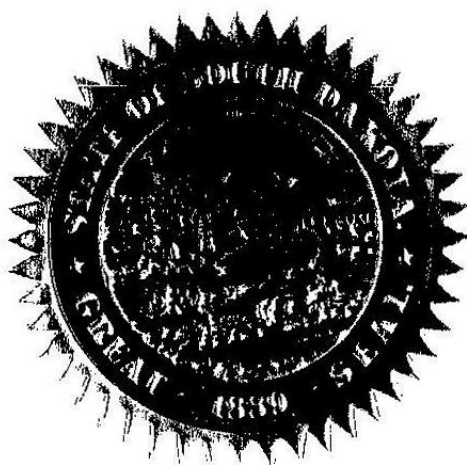

Whereas, Delores has made a positive difference in the quality of life at the University and in the successful attainment of USD's mission to educate the citizens of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement:

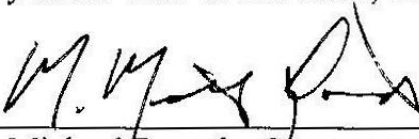

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 21, 2009, as in South Dakota, and I join her family and her many friends from The University of South Dakota and the Vermillion community in wishing her a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Nine.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
